

The Sue Duncan Children's Center: An Illustration of Our Impact Over Time

The SDCC is dedicated to transforming the lives of children by forming long-term relationships which nurture their academic, athletic, and artistic growth.

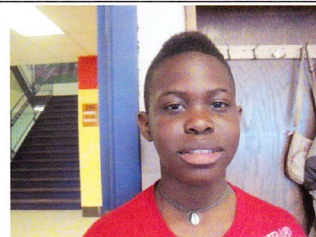

The Lifers

Serenity
*11th Grade, Jones
College Prep*
Attending SDCC since:
1998

Ranking among our biggest success stories ever, Serenity epitomizes what any child can do given enough encouragement and support. She is applying early decision to Wellesley.

Current GPA: 3.875

Ouseynou
*7th Grade, Ariel
Community Academy*
Attending SDCC since:
2006

Ouseynou came to us from Senegal knowing only Wolof and some French. We tutored him individually in French for two years until his English was strong enough to carry him forward.

Current GPA: 3.55

Turning the Corner

Shamirah
*2nd Grade, Robinson
Elementary School*
Attending SDCC since:
September, 2011

Shamirah is excited to be discovering her academic talents and using them to achieve success.

GPA at first marking period: 1.33

Current GPA: 3.0

Faraji
*3rd Grade, Robinson
Elementary School*
Attending SDCC since:
September, 2012

The son of an Afghanistan War veteran, Faraji has radically improved in math and writing.

GPA at first marking period: 2.67

Current GPA: 4.0.

Recent Admissions

Geomarri
*3rd Grade, Robinson
Elementary School*
Attending SDCC since:
January, 2013

We focused heavily on Geomarri's writing, helping him bring a failing grade up to a B.

GPA on admission: 1.0

Current GPA: 2.0

Elijah
*3rd Grade, Robinson
Elementary School*
Attending SDCC since:
January, 2013

Elijah came to us with straight Fs, grades we could see at once did not reflect his abilities at all!

GPA on admission: 0.0

Current GPA: 2.67
